

eB2Bcom TO RESELL SENTILLION IDENTITY AND ACCESS MANAGEMENT SOLUTIONS TO AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND HOSPITALS

Melbourne Australia, 15 September 2009

Sentillion, whose identity and access management (IAM) solutions are the most widely implemented in healthcare has appointed eB2Bcom, a leading Australian specialist in AM implementations, to be a Sentillion reseller for the Australian and New Zealand healthcare markets.

Sentillion's IAM solutions are used daily by over 400,000 caregivers in over 1,000 hospitals across North America and Europe. eB2Bcom's initial marketing efforts have shown that Australian and New Zealand hospitals are keen to make their IT systems more accessible and user friendly for hospital staff.

"We are delighted to work with eB2Bcom to meet the demand for our systems in Australia and New Zealand," said Paul Roscoe, President of Sentillion. "eB2Bcom has a strong track record in healthcare and specialist knowledge of identity and access management; two key criteria for a successful partnership."

Bob White, CEO of eB2Bcom said, "We are particularly attracted by Sentillion's focus on simplifying the access to patient information for clinicians and professional staff. Their technology is clearly the leader in its field, and we are already experiencing significant local interest based on Sentillion's reputation."
